THE SITUATION IN ILLINOIS.

Newspaper Figures on the Position of the Two Parties.

CHICAGO, Sept. 2.—The Illinois has the following summary of the political situation in this state as regards the legislature: The present situation throughout the state is easily summed up. There are seventeen districts in which the Democrats have no equalized vote against the house, and the Democrats own the majority for the house, and they will, therefore, elect thirty-four members, and the Democrats' seventeen. In the four districts the Democrats will run two members, and the Republicans one candidate. There are nineteen districts in which the Democrats will run two candidates. Of course each district will elect one in each district, so that there are only nineteen members of the house who are in doubt, and to them both parties look for a majority in the lower branch of the general assembly. In the four districts counted as Democrats—the Bureau, Hancock and Shelby county districts—two Republican candidates are running. In both of these conditions are such that there is considerable doubt as to which party will elect a majority in the Democratic districts, and they are not included in the doubtful districts. According to the figures above given, the Republicans are certain to elect thirty-eight members, and the Democrats, who have the majority of sixty, will elect the senate. The Democrats have fourteen bold won senators and the Democrats twelve. Of the twenty-five doubtful seats, the Democrats are dead set to elect eleven and the Republicans eight, and the balance of seats in the senate they will leave to the voters. In the lower branch, and leaving six districts in doubt, it will be seen, therefore, that the Republicans are only absolutely certain of the election of ninety-three members of the legislature, which is ten less than a majority. The Democrats are only absolutely certain of the election of thirty-four members, or, at the best, thirty-five, or, at the worst, thirty, or, at the best, thirty-one, or, at the worst, thirty-two. The parties must make up the deficit from these twenty-five doubtful senators and representatives. The districts where the election is in doubt are the 6th, 3rd, 10th, 11th, 4th, 4th, and 4th.

 "I don't, but the modern reader does. Take your manuscript home, throw in a page here

Baron Peterson, secretary to the governor, is a Russian Minister, has applied to the department for insurance. After noting the law showing that Schamburg is not to hang out the flag, he secured the request that the governor will bring the subject to the early attention of the superior municipal authority of the city of St. Petersburg, advising the mayor that any flag flying is to hang out the flag, so secure the chief of police against the consul being at once dismissed without any cost charge to that gentleman, and at the same time made that a courteous and fitting explanation.

Fulton was interviewed and said that he was out of the city at the time the flag was ordered down, and would take time before replying until he had legal advice.

Outrage and Murder in Milwaukee.
St. Joseph, Mo., Sept. 4.—Near Florence, Mo., Sunday evening, the little daughters of John McCullin, aged 10 and 9, were brutally outraged and murdered. The children were returning home on a neighbor's when they were seized by a man and taken to a wooded place where they were brutally outraged. Then she was disemboweled and shot in the head. The younger was outraged and then her blood was cut from her to ear. Then they were taken to a place where they were buried. The whole country is wild with excitement, and if the perpetrators of this deed are caught they will be lynched. No mother, on hearing the news, would have believed it and is now hating at the point of death.

Arrangements are being perfected for a grand picnic at Pope's Springs on Friday afternoon and evening of this week. The steamer Enterprise will make regular trips, and several carryalls will run to and from the springs during the afternoon and evening. There will be dancing, fire works, games, music, and a grand good time for all. It is intended to make this the picnic of the season.

The New York Tobacco Jacket.

The United States Tobacco Journal, of August 30th, thus reviews the New York tobacco market for the week ending August 30th: "Another dull and dreary week has passed. Of the '83 tobacco a sale of 100 cases Wisconsin Havana seed at 26 cents has been reported. Philadelphin jobs took about 350 cases of '82 Pennsylvania wrappers which sold as low as 12 1/2 cents. '83 Connecticut wrappers, the sales of which reached 300 cases, sold mostly at from 14 to 16 cents. Some thin and unwashed wrappers but suitable for poorer purposes brought 22 cents. For good thin bidders everybody is on the lookout. Outside of this nobody is on the lookout for anything. The goods are fairly thrown away to the few struggling buyers, and the losses to the sellers are enormous. Old tobaccos, except binders, are a drug on the market; the cheapness of this article, the desire to sell it at better than mere nominal figures, has caused an immense glut in the cigar market in cheap and medium grades of cigars, an illustration of which can be found in our Chicago correspondence of to-day. Sampling of '83 stock is still progressing, and it is mostly confined as yet to Pennsylvania and Wisconsin Havana seed packings. In Sumatra a moderate business was done; prices ran from $1.10 to $1.75; the average grades in demand are such as sell from $1.20 to $1.30 in lots.

HAVANA—Quota sales 400 bales; at 35 cents to $1.35.

CHINA FOR—We have plenty of nice dry cobs at the mill. They make splendid summer fuel. Dory & McKay.

OBITUARY.

JOHN B. CARLE.

At half past nine o'clock last evening, September 1st, Mr. John B. Carle breathed his last, and his soul entered into eternal rest, aged 75 years.

The deceased came to Janesville from Lowell, Massachusetts, in June, 1833, and engaged in farming in the town of Janesville, which occupation he followed until his demise. The deceased was a man in whom all placed the utmost confidence, and he was on several occasions elected to represent his town and fifth ward in the board of supervisors. At the time of his death he was a trustee of Court Street M. E. church, and president of Oak Hill cemetery association, in both of which organizations he took a great interest. On last Saturday morning he suffered a stroke of paralysis and remained in an unconscious condition until he expired. The deceased was a man who gained the respect of all with whom he came in contact, and his upright christian character, and his unswerving disposition towards his fellow men gained him a wide circle of friends, who will mourn his sudden end. He leaves a wife and four children: Levi B. Carle, of Chicago; William F. Carle, of this city; Mrs. Jennie Kellar, of Mattoon, Illinois; and John H. Carle.

The funeral will be held on Thursday afternoon, the hour not yet being named.

THIRD ASSEMBLY.

Mr. H. Cronkite, of Clinton, was elected chairman and Mr. E. J. Carpenter, of Furtie, secretary.

Delegates to the state convention—John Dove, of Fulton, and John Harvey, of Johnston.

Delegates to the congressional convention—W. H. Horton, of Milton, and W. F. Christman, of Clinton.

The conventions were very harmonious, and they transacted their business in short order and without any dissensions.

THE MADISON RALLY.

The Invincibles will Attend One Hundred and Fifty Strong.

President Atwood and Mr. B. F. Cross returned from Madison this morning, where they had been to make arrangements for the Blaine and Logan club and Invincibles to attend the grand rally which takes place in Madison to-morrow evening. Arrangements were made by which the invincible club will be taken over the Chicago and Northwestern road for 90 cents round trip, provided one hundred and fifty tickets are taken. The train will leave Janesville at 3 o'clock to-morrow afternoon, making close connection at Afton, and returning will leave Madison at 11:30 p. m. Arrangements were also made by which members can procure a good supper at Mr. C. F. Slight's restaurant in Madison at 25 cents each.

A regular meeting of the Blaine and Logan Invincibles will be held this evening, and it is earnestly requested that all who intend to go to Madison will be present this evening, and leave their names with the committee. No tickets will be sold at the depot at the above rate.

The Bower City Band will accompany the club.

The line of march in Madison is a short one, and will not be tiresome.

Those who desire to spend more time in the capital city can leave here on the noon train for Madison via Afton, reaching Madison two or three hours ahead of the other train.

Remember the meeting this evening.

THE WEATHER.

At seven o'clock this morning the thermometer registered 65 degrees above zero. Clear, with south wind. At one o'clock p. m. the register was 53 degrees above zero. Clear, with south wind. For the corresponding hours one year ago, the register was 70 and 80 degrees above zero.

Democratic Mass Meeting.

The democrats are making extra efforts for a grand Cleveland and Hendricks rally in this city on Saturday, September 13, and promise to eclipse all previous displays in the way of a torch light procession. Mr. A. M. Valentine, corresponding secretary of the Cleveland and Hendricks club, received letters this morning from General L. N. Stiles, of Chicago, and Hon. A. K. Delaney, of Dodge county, this state, accepting the club's invitation to speak in this city on the evening of that date.

Editors are proverbially cautious in lending the endorsement of their names and influence, but Mr. John T. Mason, of the Valley Sentinel, at Sidney, Ohio, sends a voluntary testimonial to the merits of the cause. He writes, "The medicine you sent me has given me more relief from rheumatism and neuralgia than anything else I have ever tried, and she has tried everything, having been a sufferer for fifteen years. I have let other sufferers here have the medicine, with much benefit."

FATHER FAIRBANKS ABROAD.

An Interesting Account of a Journey Through Europe.

Rev. F. H. Fairbanks, who, some fifteen years ago, was assistant pastor of St. Patrick's church, this city, and who is now located in Milwaukee, has just returned from an extended trip through Europe, and the following interesting interview with the reverend gentleman will be read with interest by his many friends in Janesville.

(From the Milwaukee Journal.)

Rev. F. H. Fairbanks, pastor of St. Patrick's church, of this city, was pleasantly surprised Thursday evening by a group of three gentlemen, who had just returned from their journey through Europe, and the following interesting interview with the reverend gentleman will be read with interest by his many friends in Janesville.

Q. How did you get on your journey?

A. I was accompanied in this European tour by Rev. Thomas Fagan, pastor of the church of the Immaculate Conception, Bay View, and Rev. Father Keenan, of Fond du Lac. The trip was an extensive one, including the three continents, Europe, Asia and Africa. Father Fairbanks relates the story of his wanderings about as follows:

"We shipped from an Italian port on a steamer bound for Alexandria. Skirting among the islands of Greece, we reached Alexandria, spent two days there, thence to Cairo. From Cairo we had an excursion to the pyramids. All excavations have ceased, and there is nobody around there except Bedouins."

"Did you visit the pyramids without an escort?"

"Oh, yes; the only place we had an escort from was Jerusalem to Jenebo. But I anticipated. From Cairo we went to Jerusalem by way of Port Said. We were there three consecutive days. Egypt, Nazareth, Bethany, Bethlehem, Galilee, the Dead Sea, and other points of interest. Father Fagan enjoyed the distinction of being the only shaven priest in Jerusalem. The rest were bearded, not only the priests, but the Spanish and Italian priests visiting there. I saw many a two in the holy sepulchre, once at Nazareth, and once at Bethany. We went to the Dead Sea under an escort, which a sheik sent with us. There were only two men, but this was good as an escort. You see, the robbers are bands of roving Bedouins, and they know very well that if they attacked us our escort would feel bound in honor to protect us, and would go on far as to sacrifice their lives in defending us. The robbers did not know that the relatives of the dead men would declare the vendetta against the tribe of the murderers and kill them."

"How did the places you saw impress you?"

"Palestine is not by any means a land flowing with milk and honey. Still it is said that anything you plant there will grow. There are 500,000 people at Bethlehem, while it has a reputation of being only 50,000. One is apt to be somewhat misled by the guide-books of the travelers in the holy land."

"What city impressed you most?"

"For profound veneration, Jerusalem, on account of a religious interest and its antiquity. For its grandeur, St. Peter's, and St. Paul's, in Rome. For its residence, Dublin. For worldly beauty and magnificence, Paris. For its openness in the matter of existence, Munich. For its immensity, and numerical superiority, London."

Father Fairbanks has seen nobody on the pyramids, sunset on the bay of Naples, and sunrise among the icy pinnacles of the glorious Alps. He sailed up the Rhine, fragrant with its legends of the Black Forest and its spirits of the air. He visited almost every country of modern Europe, had an opportunity to kiss the Blarney stone, which he refused, and visited Edinburgh. Of the Tower, he says that it is not much of a tower, but that the Nile is a grand affair. The Rhine he admires for its historical worth, but doubts whether it is equal to the Hudson or Mississippi after all.

Father Fairbanks returns home in good health, and will be welcomed back by a large circle of friends. While in Rome he was present at a discussion where the pope presided, and heard him speak. He is not a good orator, like his predecessor, but is a great student. He was dressed in white, and is very pale. There were also a dozen cardinals present.

A Monster Painting.

The Milwaukee exposition management has prepared a pleasant surprise for visitors to the coming exhibition. A small army of men have been busy for the past two weeks, under lock and key, in the great conservatory attached to the building, and the nature of their mysterious work has just been made public. A monster panorama painting is being prepared. The great canvas is 125 feet long and 48 feet wide, arranged in semi-circular form with a realistic foreground so artfully arranged that from the observation gallery, which is elevated some 12 feet, the eye cannot distinguish where the foreground ends and the painting begins. The subject is the Battle of Lookout Mountain, wherein so many Wisconsin soldiers were engaged, and where Robert Chivas laid down his life with many other gallant men whose names are on the Roll of Honor of the Badger state. The artists were sent direct to Tennessee, and the sketches from which the great picture is being painted, were taken on the battle-ground. These, with the aid of military maps and information obtained through the courtesy of the state and war departments, and of both armies who took part in the famous battle, insure an accurate representation of one of the most stirring actions of the late war. Veterans will readily recognize the familiar landmarks, and note again the beautiful scenery which met their eyes on that memorable November day.

The artists are at work without intermission, and the exposition opening day, Sept. 13th, will find the great work complete and ready for exhibition.
